

WASHINGTON

A Globally Engaged State

Thursday, March 9th

6:00 – 7:30 pm

Join us for a conversation with Governor Jay Inslee and Mayor Marilyn Strickland, as they share their observations on the challenges confronting Washington State and the City of Tacoma today. We live in uncertain times and our institutions are facing unprecedented challenges. We will discuss how our region factors in to the national conversation about our underlying values, our obligations to one another, and what comprises America's vision of its future.
